

OBITUARIES

Mitchell Jurasevich

A memorial service will be at 1 p.m. Monday, July 7, at Central Lutheran Church in Eugene for Mitchell Jurasevich

Mitchell Jurasevich

of Eugene. He died July 2 of age-related causes at age 84.

He was born May 11, 1924, in Globe, Ariz., to Samuel and Stane Ragenovich

Jurasevich. He married Shiela Braton on May 19, 1952, in Phoenix, Ariz.

Jurasevich graduated from Arizona State University in 1952 with a bachelor's degree in education. He served in the Army and the Arizona National Guard, including service as a military policeman in the Asiatic-Pacific Theater during World War II. He was a teacher at Phoenix Union High School in Arizona and Santa Ana High School in Santa Ana, Calif. He was a farmer in Alberta, Canada and later was a general contractor in Eugene.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Janet Danner of Tacoma and Virginia Jurasevich of Eugene; three sons, Mark, Keith and Robert, all of Eugene; a sister, Delsie Krokus of McKenzie Bridge; 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Burial will be in Rest-Haven Memorial Park in Eugene. Arrangements by Musgrove Family Mortuary in Eugene. Remembrances to the Eugene Mission or Central Lutheran Church.